From the publisher

For more than 150 years, Associated Newspapers has brought local news to communities in this area. These publications have won hundreds of both state and national journalism awards during that century and a half of publishing and have weathered some serious challenges.

The past few weeks have presented a serious challenge as our editor who is our only editorial staff member, suffered a serious injury and is unable to produce any copy for our local pages. She will be incapacitated for several weeks.

We hope that explains the few pages online this week as we attempt to make decisions and plans for the future.

It is and has been for many, many years, an honor and a privilege of our publications to be entrusted with the publication of legal notices from several communities in the area. Above all else, we plan to honor that trust and publish the vital legal notices this week, although our news coverage is severely lacking in both our usual quality and quantity.

These serious circumstances will impact our plans for the future, but those plans will include, as they have for more than 150 years, our constant commitment to best serve our readership and our communities.

Suspect arrested in stalking of state and city official

Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy has charged Christopher Dean Baldwin, 40, of Flushing, in connection with stalking Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel and her wife, Plymouth City Commissioner Alanna Maguire.

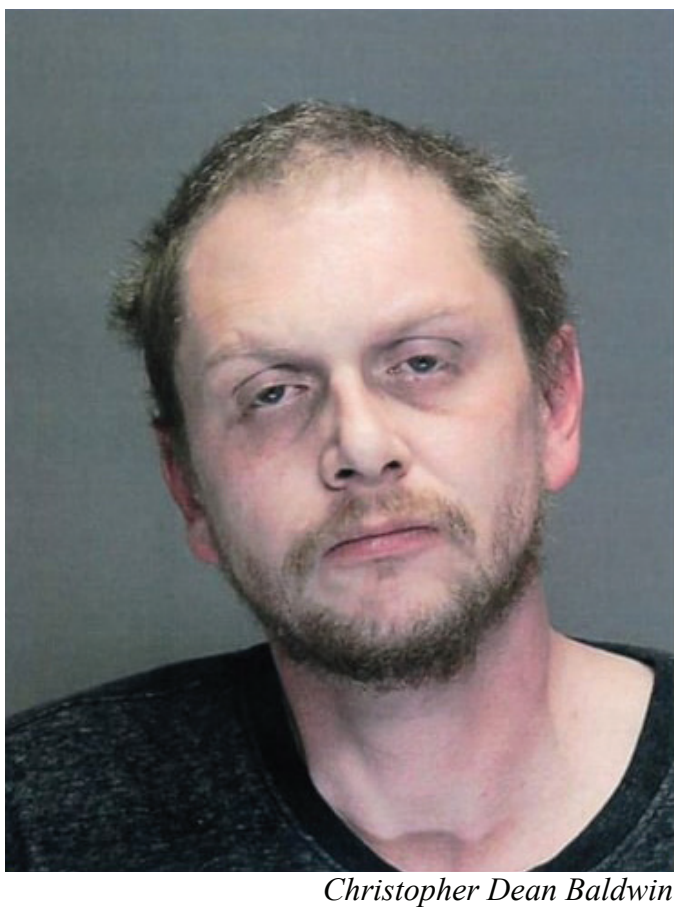
On March 5, 2024, at approximately 8:34 a.m., Plymouth police officers were dispatched to Attorney General Nessel's family home in Plymouth for reports of a man sitting on her front porch. Upon arrival, officers came in contact with the defendant.

It is alleged that Baldwin rang the doorbell of Nessel and Maguire's home, before sitting on their front porch. Baldwin was arrested at the scene without incident by officers from the City of Plymouth Police Department. It is alleged that Baldwin had attempted unsolicited contact with Nessel on a prior occasion.

Baldwin came to a March 4 meeting where Plymouth City Commissioner Alanna Maguire was in attendance.

Baldwin has been charged with two counts of misdemeanor stalking.

"The Wayne County Prosecutor's Office will always take any and all threats against public officials very seriously. This simply will not be tolerated. Unfortunately, in today's climate threats to elected and other officials have become normalized. Not by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, ever," said Worthy.



Christopher Dean Baldwin

Baldwin was arraigned last week in 35th District Court before Judge Michael Gerou and given a $100,000/10 percent bond with a GPS tether. He is also ordered to have no contact with the victims, no controlled substances or alcohol, and to surrender all firearms. A pre-trial is scheduled for March 15, before Judge James Plakas.

Team Effort

Miracle League and Team USA join to fund field project

By Ashley Willet

Miracle League of Plymouth and USA hockey representatives teamed up Feb.28 in an effort to fund a new baseball field in Plymouth.

The National Development Hockey League donated $3 from every ticket sold during the game last month to Miracle League. During the hockey game, Miracle League officials hosted a silent auction with baskets sponsored by The Home Depot of Farmington Hills, Busch's of Plymouth Township, Hyatt Hotels, Painting with a Twist and even the Detroit Tigers.

A special guest at the game was Buzz Schneider, who was on the 1980 USA hockey team that defeated the Soviet Union. Schneider's son starred in the 2004 movie Miracle portraying his father. The movie, based on the 1980 hockey team, starred Kurt Russell, Patricia Clarkson, and Nathan West. Schneider did a "meet and greet" with the audience members at the game. The National Development hockey team hosted an open skate with the team members following the game as part of the fundraising effort.

Funds from this event and others will be used for the resurfacing project at Bilike Field. In partnership with Playground Equipment Services and Shaw Construction, Miracle League members hope to resurface the turf with an ADA-Compliant surface. Miracle League has raised $180,764 so far toward the $225,000 project.

Wayne council hires new city manager

Diane Webb

Wayne City Council members have chosen Diane Webb as the new city manager. Webb was selected by a four to three vote of the councilmembers with Mayor John Rhaesa, Mayor Pro Tem Alfred Brock and Councilman Donal Quarles casting the dissenting votes.

Webb told the councilmembers she was looking forward to the new position and that she planned to meet with each of them.

Currently, Webb is the township supervisor in Redford Township. She has served elected terms on the Garden City Council and the Wayne County Commission.

"I think you'll do great," Rhaesa said to Webb during the Dec. 19 meeting. "I want the council to be working with the city manager. Our job is to make you successful and our community successful."

Despite his negative vote, Rhaesa told Webb he thought she would "do great.".

Councilmembers expressed their gratitude to Wayne Police Chief Ryan Strong, who's been interim manager since the abrupt resignation of former city Manager Lisa Nocerini. Strong was one of four final candidates under consideration for the job.

"I'm very excited about the opportunity to work with you and move this community forward," Webb said.

Final candidates for the job, in addition to Webb and Strong, were Mohamed Ayoub and Ken Marten.

Webb will replace Lisa Nocerini, who abruptly resigned in August to take a city manager job near Grand Rapids. Nocerini is a named defendant in an ongoing federal case brought by Mark Blackwell, a city critic who claims Nocerini and other city officials violated his First Amendment rights and falsely accused him of a misdemeanor during a police chief hiring process in 2019.

Multiple council members and city department heads openly supported Strong for the position. He has been serving as interim city manager since Nocerini resigned. He has been with the police department for more than 20 years.

"I'm excited to see what the City of Wayne can do with a city manager from outside who gives us a breath of fresh air," Councilman Mathew Mullholland said.

Water improvements planned throughout communities

Habitat improvements are coming soon to Wilcox and Phoenix Lake in the. City of Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Northville Township.

Wayne County Parks officials said planned improvements will create and enhance habitat in and around each lake through placement of substrate used for fish spawning, shoreline stabilization, habitat structure installation, dredging (Wilcox Lake only), treatment and removal of invasive species, and native plantings in the communities.

As temperatures improve, workers will mobilize to begin invasive species treatment and site preparation so that construction can begin this spring. This effort is part of the "Rouge River AOC Habitat Restoration - Wilcox/Phoenix Implementation" project funded by a grant from the U.S. EPA Region 5 (Great Lakes Region), Great Lakes Restoration Initiative (Grant# GL-00E03267-0).
